Chamber trio performs on campus Jan. 30

The American Chamber Trio will perform from 11:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. Monday Jan. 30, in UC 134. The performance is sponsored by the UT Tyler Student Association and is free to faculty, staff and students, as well as the public.

The Trio has presented three series of concerts in New York and has given recitals at the National Gallery and the Phillips Collection in Washington, D.C. Rapidly gaining an international reputation, the ensemble toured the Far East in the spring of 1983, including performances in Hong Kong and Singapore.

Their performances in this country have included appearances at chamber music societies and universities. Their recitals have been heard on radio nationwide and seen on television in New York and Los Angeles.

The Trio is comprised of Peter Basquin, pianist, June DeForest, violinist, and Daniel Morganstern, cellist. Scheduled selections are Brahms's "Trio in C Minor, Op. 101," Ives' "Trio for Violin, Cello and Piano" and Beethoven's "Trio in B Flat Major, Op. 97 (Archduke)."

Continuing Education offers Labor-Management Seminar

Managing with and without a labor union will be the focus of a continuing education seminar at The University of Texas at Tyler from 8:30 a.m. - 5 p.m. Jan. 31 in room 127 of the Administration Building.

"Labor-Management Relations: Rights and Duties for Unionized and Non-Union Employers" will be presented by John F. Bufe of the Tyler law firm of Potter, Guinn, Minton, Roberts & Ireland, P.C. The program is designed for all levels of management, especially first-line supervisors, personnel managers and executive officers.

Three major topics will be covered. The seminar is sponsored by UT Tyler's office of continuing education.

An experienced industrial relations attorney, Bufe came to East Texas in 1983 after practicing labor relations law in Washington, D.C. for seven years. He graduated magna cum laude from Michigan State University in 1972 and earned his law degree from Georgetown University in 1975.

UT Tyler honor students named

UT Tyler has named 58 students to the President's Honor Roll and 96 students have been named to the Dean's List for the fall semester.

To merit the honor of being on the President's Honor Roll, a student must have completed, in one semester, 12 or more undergraduate hours with a grade point average of 4.0. The Dean's List is comprised of undergraduates who earned a GPA of 3.75 or higher on nine or more semester hours.

Recipients of the two honors represent a total of 37 cities and 24 majors.

They include 119 juniors and 35 seniors.

in the spotlight...

Dr. Patricia A. Gajda, professor of history, spoke at the annual banquet of the Friends of the Library in Athens Jan. 10. She spoke on "More than Bombs and Bullets," some non-military facets of the Second World War in Europe.

Hamm announces Mears as 1983-84 Piper nominee

Dr. Gary Mears, chair, Department of Psychology and professor of psychology, is the 1983-84 nominee for the Minnie Stevens Piper Foundation Outstanding Teacher Award for The University of Texas at Tyler. The announcement of the UT Tyler nominee for the statewide Piper Professor Award was made by Dr. George F. Hamm.

The University Faculty Awards Committee sought nominations from faculty and received comments from faculty, students and staff in the spring for the fall selection. The committee then recommended the nomination of Mears to Hamm.

In endorsing Mears as the UT Tyler nominee, Dr. Hamm said, "I am honored to forward the nomination of Dr. Mears for the prestigious Minnie Stevens Piper award. He has distinguished himself in the classroom and through his publications which are being used on several hundred campuses throughout the country. His extraordinary contribution to the institution has resulted in his being named holder of the Sam A. Lindsey Endowed Chair."

Mears, who joined the UT Tyler faculty in 1974, holds the Bachelor of Science degree from East Texas State University, the Master of Arts from Texas Christian University and a doctorate from the University of Northern Colorado.
